

Earth and Rock Samples

This pack is made up of sounds from earth being dug up and placed alongside a hole, a couple of spade sounds and something being dragged. Pouring rocks into a metallic container has given a dull heavy thud type feel to the whole pack, though there are a few sharper moments.

To download the 24 Bit 44.1 kHz Mono and Stereo version use this link
(5.5 MB)

Copyright and license:

For an artist who wishes to use the sounds for the purpose of making music (or as an fx in games or for film ambience) only, they may use the sounds in music and pay no royalties to do so – They may not share, distribute, sell or give away the waves in this pack either by physical or virtual means including – but not limited to, loops, sound fonts, re-synthesis, sample sets, virtual instruments etc.

Copyright 2006 Spe3d